RESERVED DOMAIN LIST

The Reserved Domains List contains a list of domains in the TLDs you are accredited for that are reserved as well as those that are currently in Restricted-Claims or Restricted-Open statuses in the Afilias Registry System. Names that were initially reserved from registration and are made available after the start date of the Claims Period are subject to the Claims services per the Rights Protection Mechanisms. These names are included in the Reserved Domains List.

Names that are subject to claims will be removed from the list at the end of their Claims Period and may be available through the normal means then.

The Reserved Domains List report file includes TLD, domain name and the following status information.

- MAN - These are subject to ICANN and registry restrictions and not available for registration.
- RESTRICTED-CLAIMS - These names are subject to claims and may be registered using the appropriate claims extension. Please refer to the Customer Portal for more information on the specific extension.
- RESTRICTED-OPEN - These names are currently not subject to claims and many be registered using the appropriate extension. Please refer to the Customer Portal for more information on the specific extension.

The file name is of the following format:
